to east side

by
RAFFAELLA PADOVANO

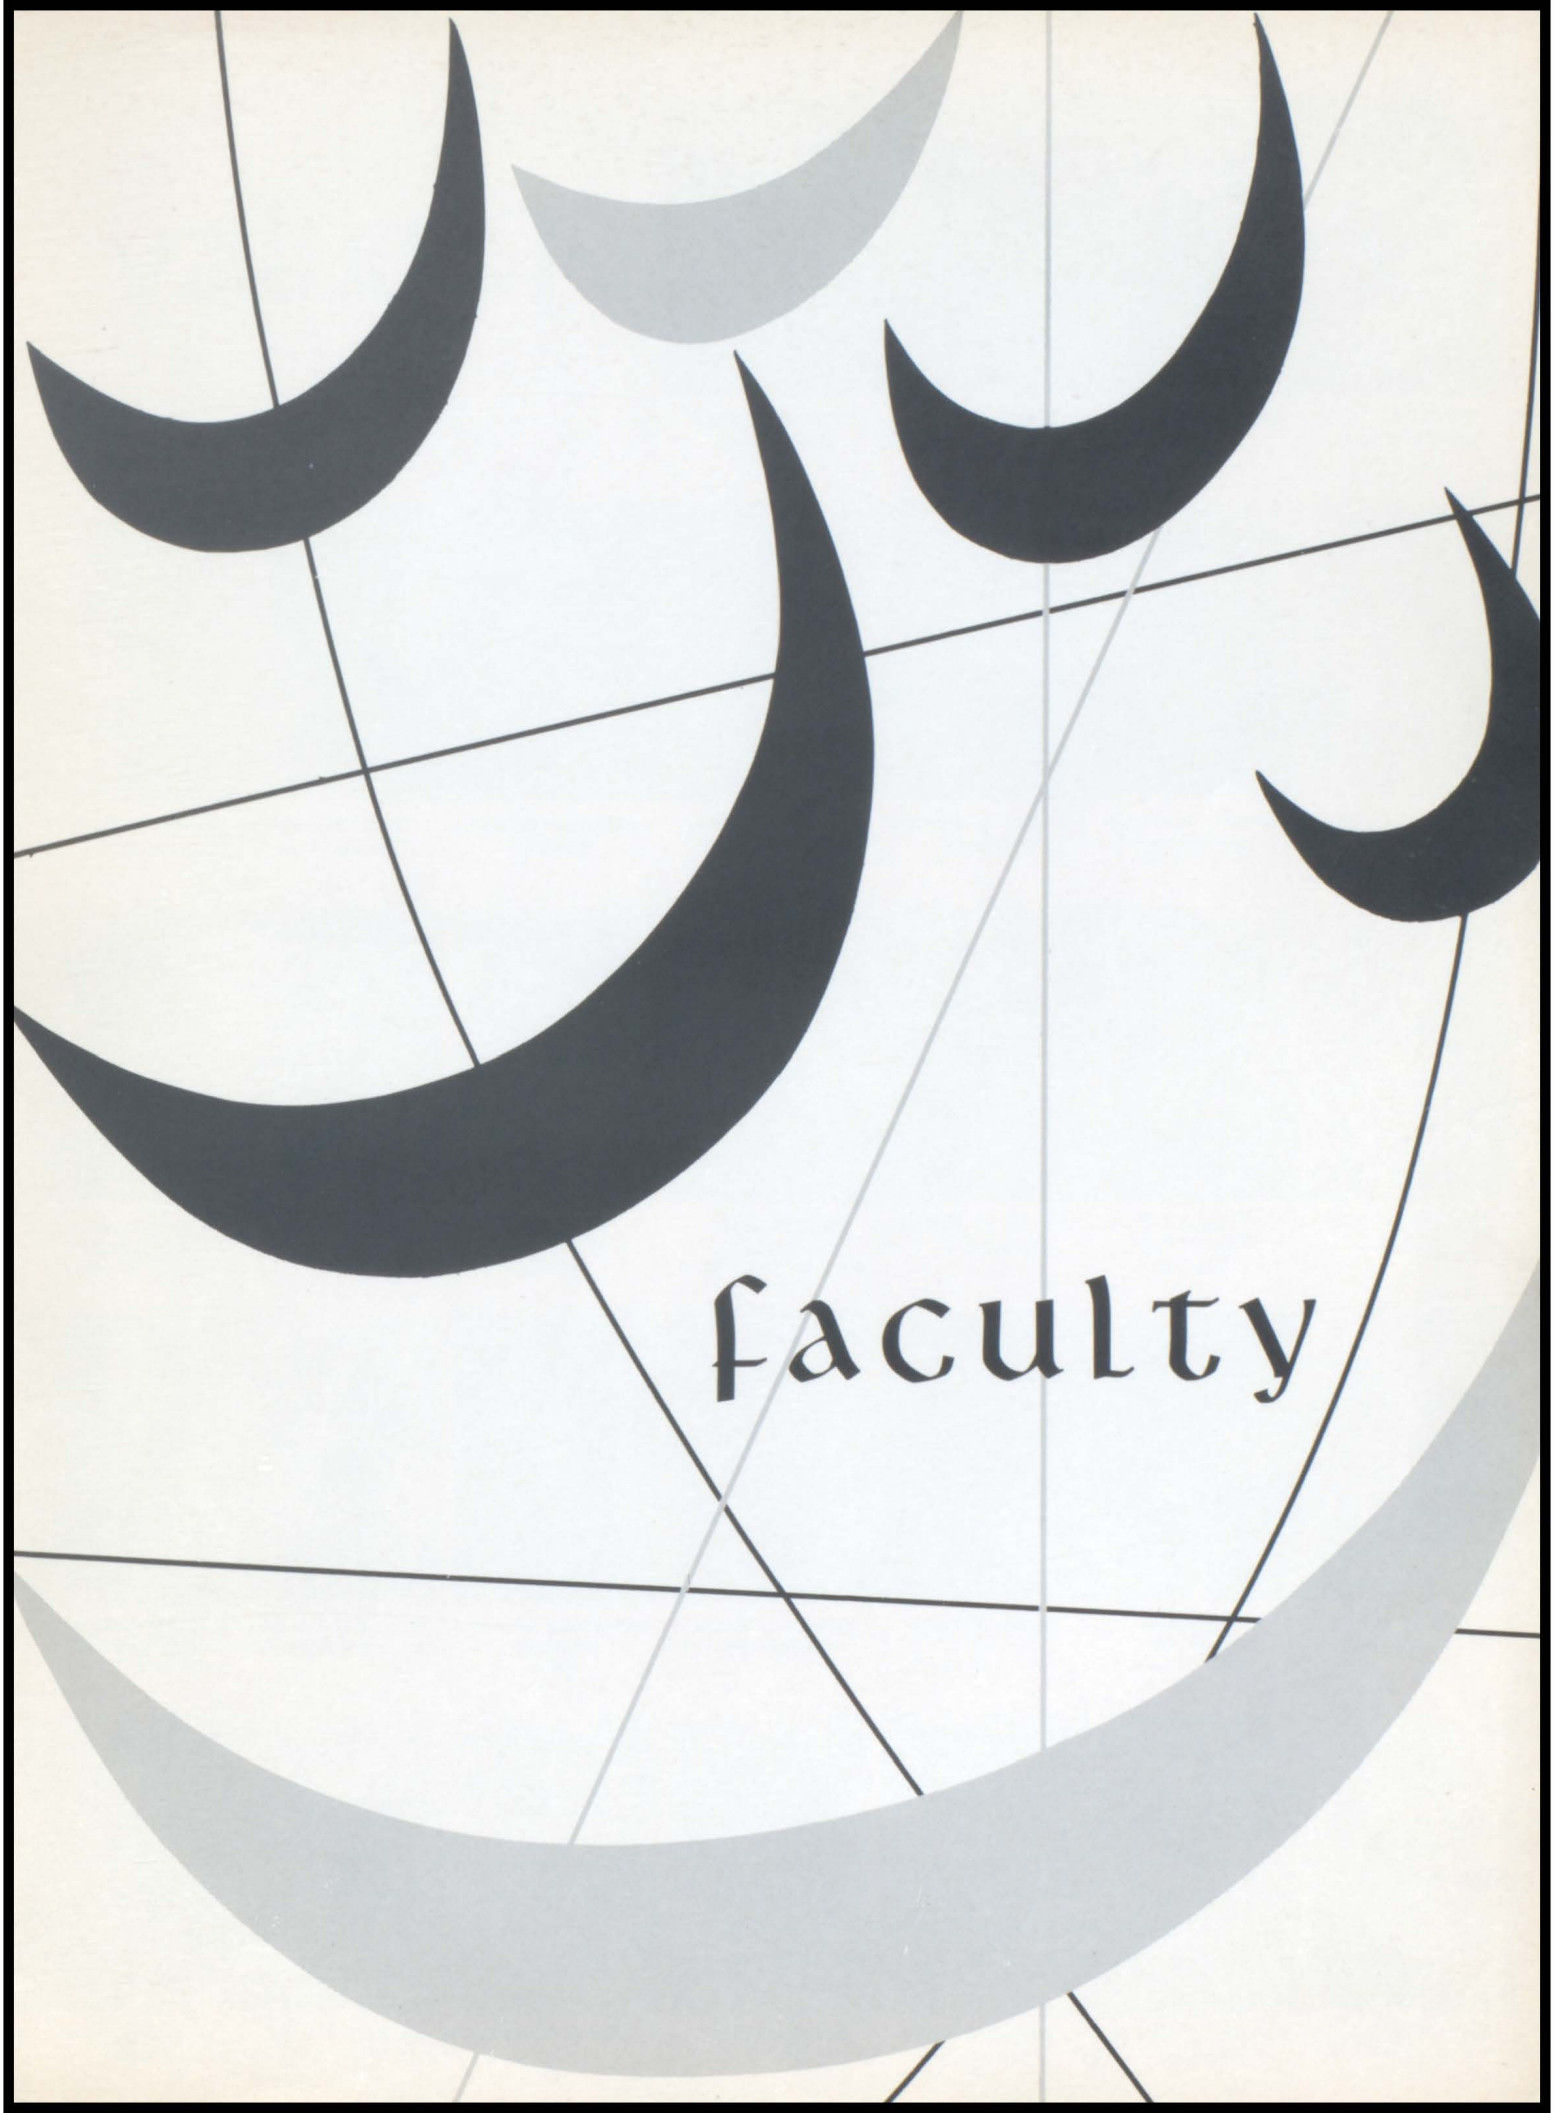

Our minds are but large albums,
Where lingering memories lie,
And on the most treasured pages
Are thoughts of East Side High.

We remember all the friends we made:
All the football games and dances;
The clubs, the shows, the Senior Recs,
Our first high school romances.

Our teachers too, the little things,
The same old corny jokes.
The days we spent at the Sweet Shoppe
Drinking ice cold cokes.

Too soon these books of memories
Show the day we all will part.
With heavy hearts and tear-filled eyes
Our trip through life will start.

We face a world in agony,
We've each a job to do.
But thanks to you, dear East Side High,
I'm sure we'll see it through.

Full of fun and fancy-free,
To his heart we need no key.

MILLICENT WILLIAMS

24 Hunterdon Street

Nice and friendly is her style
Gay and happy all the while.

JUDITH WONG

56 Court Street

Not so tall, very small; but always neat, and very sweet.

VERDELL YVONNIE WOOLRIDGE

53 Somme Street

Politeness is a virtue in itself.

JOHN WOTTRICH

79 Ann Street

He takes things as they come.

ELAINE WRIGHT

14 Vesey Street

A quiet lass; there are but few
Who know the treasure hid in you.

RICHARD JOSEPH ZELLMANN

190 Astor Street

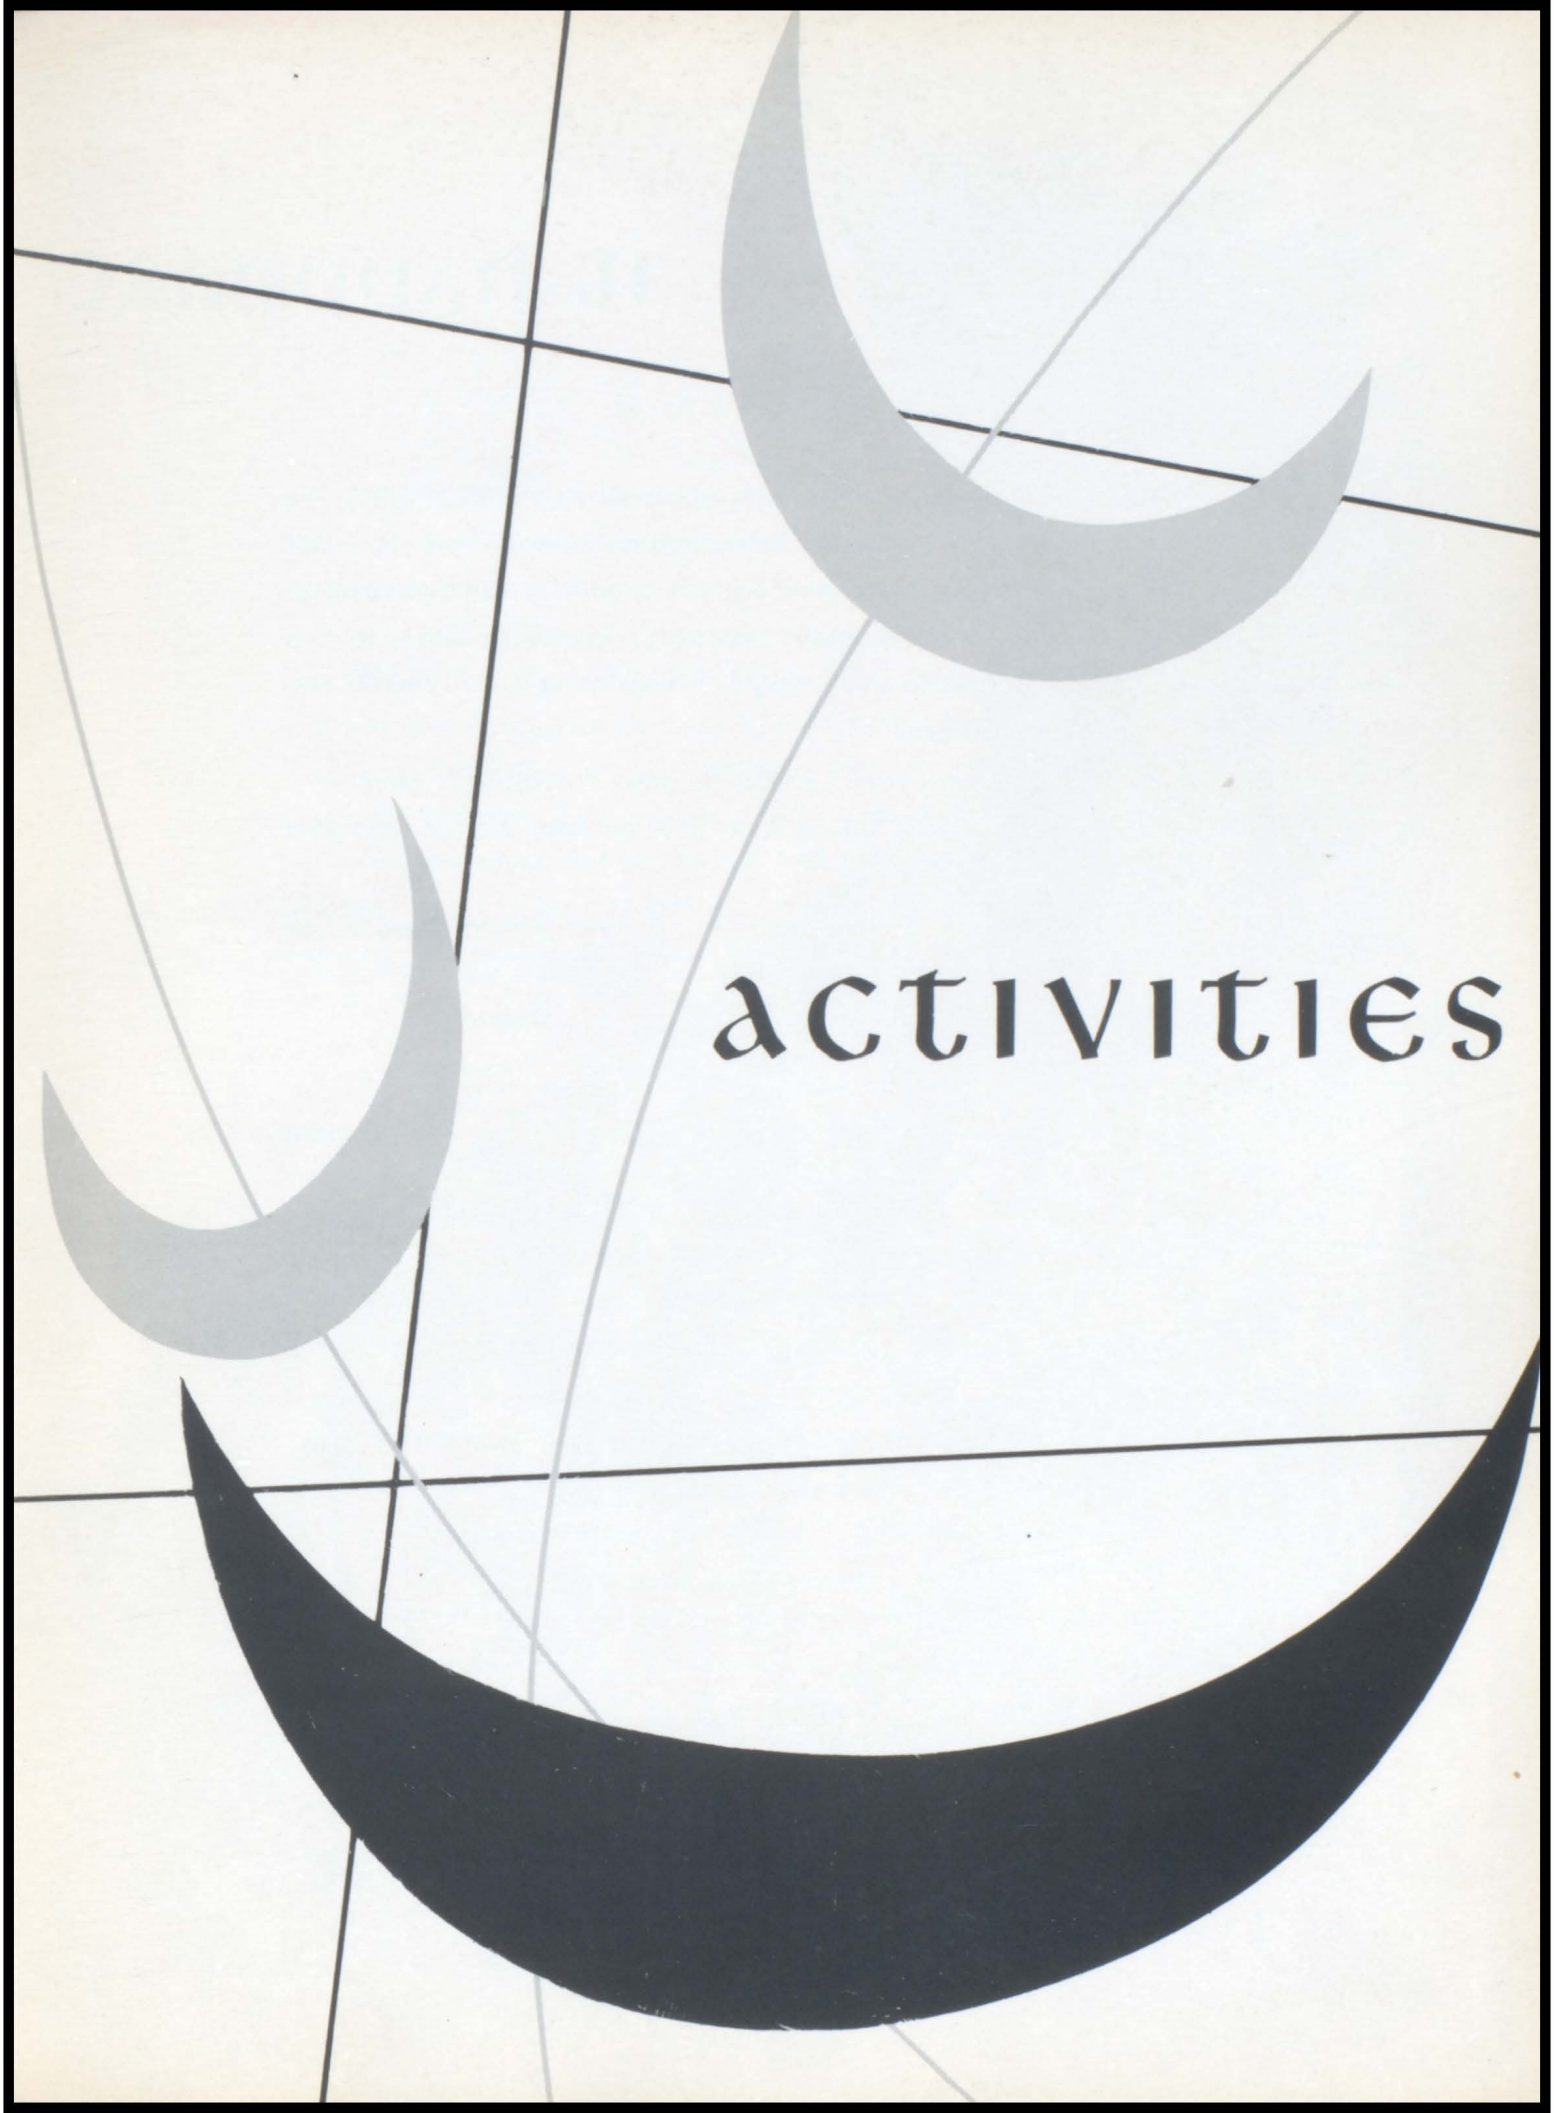

Witty, lively, and full of fun.

DOLORES JOAN ZUK

40 Main Street

Merry as a lark as the day is long,
Her heart is filled with mirth and song.

activities

It happened

In January 1951, we entered East Side and an entirely different life. We were assigned home rooms and got to know the person next to us. It wasn't long before we learned our way around the school and found no elevator on which to use the tickets we purchased from some fun-loving Senior for ten cents. On June 8, we held an afternoon "Get Acquainted Party" and we also elected our first class officers.

During our Sophomore year, we became great friends with each other and spent many study periods talking about movies, boys, clothes, and girls (we were supposed to be studying).

In our Junior year we held our first evening dance which turned out to be a success. We also elected new officers and the results were as follows:

Anthony Simonovich . . . . . President
Phyllis Paglia . . . . . Vice President
Dolores Gomes . . . . . Secretary
Robert Martin . . . . . Treasurer

When our 11A term came, we began to think seriously of raising money for our Torch and everyone worked vigorously to raise funds by selling Christmas Cards. The members of class were certainly proud as they wore their new school rings and boasted about our football team—we were City Champions in 1953.

In January 1954, we became Seniors and held class elections for the last time with the new officers being:

Ricardo de Bastos . . . . . President
Marianne Soyka . . . . . Vice President
Dolores Gomes . . . . . Secretary
Larry McGrath . . . . . Treasurer

to us

by

PATRICIA MARIE DOLLBERG

On May 21, 1954, we were officially recognized as Seniors when the Torch was handed down at the Senior Reception to Ricardo de Bastos, our newly-elected president.

Our Farewell Dance was held in the girls' gymnasium in January. An light Serenade, at the Hotel Essex House. Both girls and fellows looked like adults as they arrived for the evening in beautiful formals and tuxedos.

Come September, we were anxiously waiting to start our last six months of school. Naturally everyone was in a hurry to see how the construction on the new gymnasium and auditorium had progressed over the summer. In October, we set to work to produce our show for Senior Rec. in December. Everyone was racking his brains to write something new and different for our up-coming Torch. This book is the result of the effort and work put forth by the class.

Our Farewell Dance was held in the new gymnasium in January. An enjoyable evening was had by all as this was the last social affair we would hold as a class. January 26, 1955, arrived and at 8:00 p. m. graduation exercises were held. As we walked down the aisle with solemness and tears in our eyes, we realized this was it—the big moment in our lives; we were now on our own.

No more could we go to our advisers for help, we were our own bosses, our life and future ahead of us. It was now up to us to decide which path would lead us to success, fame, and happiness. Our valedictorian expressed our gratitude and thanks to all those deserving of it.

We now left four wonderful years of experiences behind us and were entering adulthood with a new outlook on life. The memories of our school, friends, and teachers, will linger with us for the years to come. So ends our high school life with the tune of our Alma Mater still in our thoughts.

last will and testament

We, the members of the Class of January 1955, being of sound mind and understanding, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

To Mr. McCracken, our principal, we leave the pleasure of being the only principal in the city with the most modern school addition.

To Mrs. Conner and her staff, we leave a new and beautiful lunch room for the East Side student body.

To the Freshmen, we leave our former books and teachers. May you profit wisely from them.

To the Sophomores, we bestow the knowledge you have gained from your Freshman year.

To the Juniors, the pleasure of wearing your shiny new class rings.

To Mr. Jannone's future Secretarial Practice 2 classes we leave a new supply of razor blades and ditto erasers.

To Mr. Hecht and the Circulation Dept. of the Announcer, are left new accountants, a new bank teller, and new ideas for improving circulation.

To Miss Crummy we guarantee a quiet home room by leaving her a set of ear plugs.

To Nick, our traffic policeman, we leave a new book of traffic tickets and summonses for the corner gangs around school.

To the matron and custodians, our sincere thanks and appreciation for their services at our social affairs.

To the student body as a whole, may you enjoy all the experiences, good times, and sorrows high school brings.

To the Senior B's we leave the memories of a never-to-be-forgotten Prom. The Torch is also left to you. May you look to it for inspiration and we sincerely hope it will burn as brightly in the future as it has in the past.

To our home room teachers and advisers our appreciation for the help and understanding you have shown us during the four most wonderful years of our lives.

To Mr. Jay, we will all the Christmas cards, banners, wallets, and flashlights left over from our sales campaign. Maybe you can sell them, we couldn't.

In witness whereof we hereby set our hands and seal this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty-Four

Ricardo de Bastos
Marianne Soyka
Dolores Gomes
Lawrence McGrath

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for the Last Will and Testament of the Class of January 1955 in my presence by its officers, who, at their request and in their presence, have hereunto subscribed my name as witness.
